

Music at Duke

There are still openings in the following classes for Fall '09

Music 119S (ALP, CCI, CZ, W)

The Humanities and Music

WF 10:05 AM - 11:20 AM, Jacqueline Waeber

Music's relationship to literature, film, art, philosophy, culture and society.

Music 168: Piano Music (ALP)

MW 1:15 PM - 2:30 PM, R. Larry Todd

The two-hundred-year tradition of music for the piano, its evolution, and its principal composers (including Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt, Brahms, and others).

R. Larry Todd is Arts & Sciences Professor of Music.

Music 70: Music, Sound, and Style (ALP, CCI, CZ)

TuTh 2:50 PM - 4:05 PM, Verena Mösenbichler-Bryant

Current pop, jazz, classical and world music through discussion of style, history, culture and taste. Taught by the incoming director of the Duke Wind Symphony, Verena Mösenbichler-Bryant.

Music 65: Theory and Practice of Tonal Music (ALP)

Section 1: TuTh 1:15 PM - 2:30 PM, Robert Parkins

Section 2: MW 4:25 PM - 5:40 PM, Philip Rupprecht

The building blocks of music.

Principles of tonal organization and introduction to musical forms.

First-Year Seminars

Music 20S.01: Listen to Images, Look at Sound (ALP, W)

TuTh 11:40 AM - 12:55 PM, Makiko Kawamoto

Introduction to music and the visual arts from symphony to visual rock. Interaction of image and sound through historical-cultural, theoretical, and aesthetic perspectives.

Music 49S.02: Orchestral Music (ALP)

MW 10:05 AM - 11:20 AM, R. Larry Todd

The orchestra, and orchestral music of Bach, Mozart, Mendelssohn, Mahler, Prokofiev, and others..